Mobile phone and Technology Policy

Purpose

At Filey Junior School, we recognise that mobile phones, including smart phones, are an important part of everyday life for our pupils, parents and staff, as well as the wider school community.

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that mobile phones and other personal technology devices are used responsibly and safely within our school community. The policy aims to:

- Promote a positive learning environment free from unnecessary distractions.
- Protect students from inappropriate use of technology.
- Encourage digital citizenship and responsible use of technology.
- Support child safeguarding and privacy standards.
- Set clear guidelines for the use of mobile phones for pupils, staff, parents and volunteers Support the school's other policies, especially those related to child protection and behaviour.

This policy also aims to address some of the challenges posed by mobile phones in school, such as:

- Risks to child protection
- Data protection issues
- Potential for lesson disruption
- Risk of theft, loss, or damage
- Appropriate use of technology in the classroom.

Rationale for the policy

There have been historical events across schools in the UK that we need to be aware of to ensure that all of our pupils and adults are safe:

- Use of mobile devices for up-skirting and obtaining imagery of genitals
- Adults taking pictures of children for theirs and others' sexual gratification
- Pornography and violent content accessed by children's own internet connectivity whilst in school
- Gang culture, knives, extremism, Drill and Grime music accessed by children's own internet connectivity
- Inappropriate and violent games accessed and played including 'Blue Whale' which requests users to undertake a series of tasks; the final one being suicide

- Pornographic and violent interpretations of known children's cartoons etc. accessed inadvertently
- Inappropriate and 'dangerous' material stored on personal devices by family members, then accessed without internet connectivity in school
- Pupils contacting family members/ birth family against parental permission
- Pupils taking pictures and videos of staff, creating memes and using VI to distort images, meaning and publishing online, leading to suspension and disciplinary action
- Using images taken of other pupils for bullying and humiliation on social media
- Sharing of personal data on social media inappropriately

Scope

This policy applies to:

- All students enrolled at Filey Junior School.
- All staff, volunteers, and visitors on school premises.
- All activities conducted on school grounds, during school hours, and at school events or excursions.

- The Headteacher and SLT are responsible for monitoring the policy every two years, reviewing it, and holding staff and pupils accountable for its implementation.

Use of Mobile phones by staff

School phone devices

School mobile phones are available for staff to take photographs and access communication apps used by school. These must be kept secure through the day and reported immediately to the Headteacher/DSL if this is lost or stolen.

Data Protection

- Staff must not use their personal mobile phones to process personal data, or any other confidential school information.
- Staff can use school phones/cameras to take pictures – not personal devices
- Staff can access website programmes that access data on external servers such as Dojo, and CPOMS though should never download content onto their personal devices.
- Staff must secure their phones as much as possible, including using passwords or pin codes to protect access to the phone's functions.
- Staff must also secure any work phone provided to them. Failure by staff to do so could result in data breaches.

Other Personal Technology Devices

All staff are issued with a school Chromebook to use for lessons, assessments and processing personal data relating to the school. Personal devices should not be used to process personal data unless under exceptional circumstances, which must be agreed with the Headteacher.

Pupils bringing mobiles to school

Pupils are allowed to bring mobiles to school if necessary. This could be due to end-of-day arrangements and safeguarding issues. If pupils do bring mobile phones into school, they must adhere to the pupil agreement below:

Pupil Agreement for mobile phones

Failure to comply with the agreement will result in the phone being confiscated and returned to the pupil at the end of the day and may result in a full ban from bringing a phone to school.

Sanctions and disciplinary for pupils misuse of mobile phones

- Schools are permitted to confiscate phones from pupils under sections 91 and 94 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006) should this be required.
- School staff have the power to search pupils' phones, as set out in the DfE's guidance on searching, screening and confiscation. The DfE guidance allows schools to search a pupil's phone if we have reason to believe the phone contains pornographic images, or if it is being/has been used to commit an offence or cause personal injury. SHOULD this is required, this is to be completed by the DSL only. If the DSL deems the situation severe, the police will be informed immediately.
- If they are confiscated, parents/carers will be contacted to collect the phone/device
- Certain types of conduct, bullying or harassment can be classified as criminal conduct. The school takes such conduct extremely seriously, and may involve the police or other agencies as appropriate. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to:
 - o Sexting
 - o Upskirting
 - o Threats of violence or assault
 - o Abusive calls, emails, social media posts or texts directed at someone on the basis of someone's ethnicity, religious beliefs or sexual orientation

Airtags

Airtags are not to be used to track pupils under any circumstances. This includes events that are not on site such as trips and residential visits. This is due to safeguarding, student privacy and unauthorised tracking. Although these small devices are popular for keeping track of belongings like backpacks, keys, and luggage, administrators worry that they could be misused to monitor the movements of other students or staff and could ultimately endanger staff and pupils as they are at risk of being tracked.

Apple itself advises that AirTags are designed solely for locating lost personal items—not for tracking people—and the company has built safety features to discourage misuse. Still, to maintain a safe and comfortable environment for everyone, schools are choosing to prohibit AirTags altogether, encouraging students and families to use approved methods for labelling and securing personal belongings instead.

Safeguarding

- Staff must not give their personal contact details to parents or pupils, including connecting through social media and messaging apps.
- See the safeguarding policy for further information related to this policy.
- Staff must not contact children on the child's personal devices, only ever contacting them through their parent/carer should this be required/necessary to do so
- Staff must avoid publicising their contact details on any social media platform or website, to avoid unwanted contact by parents or pupils.
- Staff must not use their mobile phones to take photographs or recordings of pupils, their work, or anything else which could identify a pupil.
- If it's necessary to take photos or recordings as part of a lesson/school trip/activity, this must be done using school equipment.
- Our school's use of classroom apps (Class Dojo/CPOMS) can be accessed via staff's personal devices. Information/ images/data cannot be downloaded to a personal device.

School trips are residential activities

In some circumstances, it may be appropriate for staff to use personal mobile phones for work. Such circumstances may include, but aren't limited to:

- Emergency evacuations
- Supervising off-site trips
